

My Memoir: _____ (name)

It's that time again: Book time. This is an exciting book to compliment our memoir unit; it's a book all about you! Your finished book must include six chapters. There will be four memoir chapters and two poem chapters. Use the chart on the back of this sheet to keep track of your due dates and your scores.

POEM: Where I'm From

This is a "where I'm from" poem that needs to give the reader a brief, yet vibrant picture of who you are as a person.

CHAPTER 1 – Early Years

This chapter is about a childhood memory or experience. We are going to work on depth in that moment. You need to focus on that one thing. It shouldn't be a variety of things like your poem. This memoir we will focus on how we elaborate, our language, and tone (details!).

CHAPTER 2 – Stories of the Outside World

This chapter is how you connect to the outside world. It may contain a focus on a place, animal, vegetable/fruit, mineral, etc. During this memoir we will focus on transitions and organization.

CHAPTER 3 – An Event that Shaped You

This chapter is an event that helped shape the person who you are now. It could be learning to ride a bike, tying a shoe, or breaking an arm. In this chapter we will focus on our lead and ending. It will be important to jump into the action of the story.

CHAPTER 4 - School Memory

This chapter should include fears, emotions, teachers, friends, what you expected, all of your successes and heartbreaks. This chapter needs to include dialogue in a well-crafted, properly formatted piece to get full credit. This is when we will focus on our sentence structure, spelling, and punctuation.

POEM: Who raised me

Finally we will end our book with a "who raised me" poem that also needs to give the reader a vivid picture of who you are as a person in order to get full credit.

Finally, you will select the best chapter of your book. This will be presented, by you, at our memoir evening and will be scored on the state writing rubric. Dig deep for details, pay careful consideration to your conventions and spend time revising your work. That will pay off in a memoir book that you are proud of.
