NEW RURAL, DIAL-A-RIDE SERVICE!

Thanks to state funding, a new FREE dial-a-ride service is available in rural areas of Multnomah County. Ride Connection's Dial-A-Ride program serves Multnomah County residents living in or traveling to rural areas of Multnomah County, outside TriMet's service district. All rides must begin and end within Multnomah County.

Transportation is provided by Ride Connection's contracted service providers, using a combination of sedans and wheelchair-accessible vans, depending on a customer's mobility needs. The service is for dial-a-ride trips, rather than a scheduled service with routes. For more information visit this website:

<https://multco.us/transit-services/rural-multnomah-county-dial-ride>. Rides will be available Monday through Friday, from 8am to 4:30pm.

Capital Projects Bond -

We all want to express our deepest thanks to our community members for passing the bond! We can now start to address infrastructure, Americans with Disabilities Act, Career and Technical Education, Title IX, and safety issues for our scholars and educators. As part of the promise to the community, the Corbett School District is establishing the Bond Oversight Committee (BOC) to work with the district in monitoring the expenditure of the bond funds. Please see the documents regarding the committee on our website at:

<https://corbett.k12.or.us/2020/11/19/bond-oversight-committee/>

If interested, complete and submit the application form by Thursday, December 10.

COVID-19 Metrics and Guidance -

The metrics for reopening our schools to in-person learning were modified, giving us hope for implementing our plan of bringing our students of highest need onto campus in December. However, we have since seen a spike in cases and positivity rates, and Multnomah County has prohibited any reopening for at least four more weeks. We will continue to make ready to receive as many students as we safely can as soon as we are allowed.

Technology Director Chris and Curriculum Director Holly have added information to our website under the top banner that reads "COVID-19UPDATE":

<https://corbett.k12.or.us/2020/11/17/covid-19-update-11-17-2020/>

In addition to a message and graphics that show clearly where we are in relation to meeting reopening standards, there are links to more information.

Supports -

As Comprehensive Distance Learning and Social Distancing continue further into the school year, we are seeing an increase in students and families in need of both academic support and mental health resources. Links to both of these, including a link to request tutoring, are on our website. Under "PARENTS" or "STUDENTS" on the top banner, there are links to "STUDENT SERVICES", "COVID-19 RESOURCES", and "MENTAL HEALTH RESOURCES."

Athletics -

Under the latest guidance, we may begin limited athletic conditioning when we are cleared for Limited In-Person Instruction (LIPI). These practices must be outdoors and not include physical contact, and protocols must be followed regarding masks, capacity, cleaning, and equipment.

IMPLEMENTATION UPDATE for HIGH SCHOOL AP POLICY - from Mrs. Childress, HS Principal

This year has seen many changes, some planned for, and some not. A “planned for change” has been an adjustment to the Advanced Placement (AP) course requirements in the high school. For the first time, students will have a choice in the assessment level of certain courses as tenth through twelfth graders, as long as they meet the graduation requirement of four AP courses. In early November, students were sent a form that asked if they would like to change from an AP level to a high school level in certain courses. Parents were then asked if they supported that change. Families and students were reminded of the benefit of a district-funded AP assessment, as well as the power of AP courses on their transcript.

We were pleasantly surprised at how few students chose to take the high school level courses. Students who receive student services (IEP’s and 504’s) have never been required to participate in AP assessments, although many of them choose to. Of our 325 ninth through twelfth graders, 84% have signed up for AP course assessments. This is a testament to the ability of our students and educators to take on challenging curriculums.

The charts represent the information that we have as of November 16th for students choosing to take AP level assessments in courses where they have a choice in level.

HIGH SCHOOL CTE UPDATE

- from Mrs. Childress, HS Principal

The high school continues to move forward in strengthening programs of study in CTE, (Career Technical Education). In addition to the current computer programming strand and the Engineering through Manufacturing program, we are developing a Woodworking to Small Structure Construction program of study. The challenge of a “hands-on” course like woodworking in distance learning has been real, but Mr. Bryan Estes has done a great job of pivoting to a computer-aided design curriculum until he can get actual tools into students' hands when they come back to campus. Mr. Zach Goude has been instrumental in planning for the adaptation of his current classroom into a space that can support both the woodworking and engineering courses, and remodeling has begun.

One of our main challenges to building the CTE program has been an on-going facilities issue. We are very fortunate and thankful that the recent bond passed, but building significant additional “Maker Space” is not currently in the budget, as there are pressing safety and maintenance needs across the campus that will use most of the bond funding. We are starting conversations with the architects to investigate some lower-cost options for storage and workspace. If you have connections with a significant community partner who would be willing to help fund or construct an additional Maker Space for the high school, let us know!

CONTENT AREA STUDIES for the YOUNGEST SCHOLARS - by Mrs. Wold, GS Teacher

The K/1 students have been studying some exciting topics in social studies and science. So far, they have learned about the sun and moon; seasonal nature; and mapping skills.

The teachers have been sending supplies to the youngest students each week, with the goal that children will spend a significant portion of their school day away from screens, working with the same types of materials they would use if they were in the school building.

In the pictures, you'll see a few of our projects: making astronauts, showing the phases of the moon through Oreo cookies, spider crafts, and map projects.

MIDDLE SCHOOL ARTISTS - by Mr. Houck, MS Teacher

This year in the middle school, every student takes art two times a week. Even though this seems like it would be tricky to do via Zoom, we've had a lot of success (and a lot of fun!) so far. Students are learning the seven elements of design, and we've already explored line, shape, and space. Weekly projects have included blind contour drawings, 'zentangles,' tessellations, positive/negative space cutouts, and more. Here are some student pieces, with descriptions in their own words.

"I used to make zentangles all the time when I went to Sweetbriar Elementary, so it made me really happy and excited to make one this year for my art class now. When my teacher was scrolling through the web showing us some examples of zentangles, there was one really cool looking one that he said would be more 'advanced'. That's why I decided to prove that it would be easy enough for me to make, and I guess I did. Listening to music helps me focus better, and when "Fire Drill" by Melanie Martinez came on, that's what gave me the idea for the fire pattern. All I did next was look around my room and that's when more ideas came to me."

- Madi Doyle (7th grade)

"For my blind contour drawing, I chose to draw my sister's face. She has round (Harry Potter-style) glasses, and I thought the shape of her glasses complimented her facial shape. I then decided to add watercolor, as this is a softer look and perhaps more abstract. I like the way it blends together. Even though I don't think that she looks realistic, I like the way that it seems kind of abstract. In class, we went around in a circle saying things that we wanted to work on as an art student and abstract art was one thing that I wanted to work on."

- Ariana Schreiner (6th grade)

"We were learning about the value of line and I think this art project shows what you can do with lines. I was inspired by a shattered glass effect, making each shard a different zentangle design. I included over 40 different designs. I also tried to add different designs in different areas, expanding the variety. For example, if I had a new idea for two designs but both included circles, I would save one of the designs for later so they would not be next to each other. This piece was not inspired by anything in particular, but this was during the start of the year, so my life was pretty busy, which might have something to do with all the compact zentangles. When I look at this piece, I automatically see the bold lines and zentangles, then I travel to the bigger ones. I really enjoyed doing this project, and every shard was equally fun."

- Olivia Young (7th grade)

CEF SCHOLARSHIP SUPPORT ONGOING THROUGH RESTAURANT EVENTS

Partnerships between Corbett Education Foundation (CEF) and local restaurants continue to earn dollars for our scholarship program. So far, we've earned enough funds from events at Panda Express and Chipotle to nearly fund two scholarships for Corbett graduates this coming spring.

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO PURCHASED A MEAL DURING THESE EVENTS!

While additional COVID-19 restrictions have been enacted for Multnomah County for the next few weeks, our partnerships with local restaurants continue to provide opportunities for you to help generate scholarship funds via take-out, pick-up, and delivery orders. Our next fundraiser will be at Mod Pizza on Thursday, December 3rd, (1844 NW Eastman Parkway, Gresham, Oregon). At no additional cost to you, Mod Pizza will award 20% of proceeds earned from this event toward scholarships. To help Mod Pizza adequately prepare for this event, please use the following link to 'reserve' your spot as soon as possible. <https://www.groupraise.com/events/165662> Orders can be placed via the Mod Pizza online order website. Just be sure to use coupon code GR165662C.

Another way you can help us fund scholarships is through your holiday shopping. At no cost to you, smile.Amazon and Fred Meyer will provide funds to CEF based on the amount you spend. Just add Corbett Education Foundation to your Amazon account profile and/or your Fred Meyer card. Both programs are accessed via their respective websites. Best part is, you don't pay any additional fees. Just shop as you normally do and CEF's scholarship program benefits!

Should you have any questions regarding any of these CEF items, please contact any CEF board member. You may send messages to dgranberg@corbitteducationfoundation.org or to tlarsen6200@msn.com. Be advised, these mailboxes are not monitored on a daily basis, so it may take time to receive a reply.

We thank you for your interest in the Corbett Education Foundation and we hope you are able to support us at Mod Pizza on Thursday, December 3rd!

FROM the HEALTH ROOM

December makes me want to build a big fire, stay warm, and not do as much physical activity, but our hearts, lungs, and bodies need us to stay moving.

The CDC has a great reminder that students 6-17 years of age need 60 minutes (1 hour) or more of moderate-to-vigorous intense physical activity daily. Source: Physical Activity Guidelines for Americans, 2nd edition. Available at <https://health.gov/paguidelines>, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity, and Obesity AUGUST 2019.

If you and your student can't do a full 60 minutes at a time, try to do smaller chunks of 10-15 minutes several times a day. The American Heart Association has given us some great ideas to consider for the outdoors:

- Brisk walking or hiking, jogging or running, raking leaves, shoveling snow, ice skating, sledding, cross-country skiing, and snowshoeing.

The AHA reminds us to dress in layers and stay well hydrated: <https://www.heart.org/>. I would like to hear the creative and fun ways our Corbett students and families are keeping in motion during the winter time.

Stay Strong and Healthy!
Julie Nakamura, RN

DIVERSE VOICES & ACHIEVEMENTS

December 1st is Rosa Parks Day. Mrs. Parks was an American activist in the civil rights movement best known for her pivotal role in the Montgomery bus boycott. The U.S. Congress has called her "the first lady of civil rights" and "the mother of the freedom movement".

On December 1, 1955, in Montgomery, Alabama, Mrs. Parks, a seamstress at a local department store, rejected a bus driver's order to relinquish her seat to a white passenger. After her arrest for civil disobedience in violating Alabama segregation laws, the black community boycotted the Montgomery buses for over a year. A federal Montgomery bus lawsuit resulted in a decision that bus segregation is unconstitutional under the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

December 2nd is International Day for the Abolition of Slavery. On December 2, 1949, the U.N. General Assembly adopted the "United Nations Convention for the Suppression of the Traffic in Persons and of the Exploitation of the Prostitution of Others". The focus of this day is on eradicating contemporary forms of slavery, such as trafficking in persons, sexual exploitation, the worst forms of child labor, forced marriage, and the forced recruitment of children for use in armed conflict.

December 10th is International Human Rights Day. On December 10, 1948, the U.N. General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, a milestone document proclaiming the inalienable rights which everyone is inherently entitled to as a human being regardless of race, color, religion, sex, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Available in over 500 languages, according to Guinness World Records it is the most translated document in the world.

"Where, after all, do universal human rights begin? In small places, close to home -- so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any maps of the world. [...] Unless these rights have meaning there, they have little meaning anywhere. Without concerted citizen action to uphold them close to home, we shall look in vain for progress in the larger world." - Eleanor Roosevelt

INCLEMENT WEATHER & DISTANCE LEARNING EXPECTATIONS

Comprehensive Distance Learning will continue for students on snow and ice days even if school is closed to staff due inclement weather. Teachers will teach remotely, and students will participate remotely, just as is occurring now. Power outages would, of course, not make this possible. But as long as there is power, learning can continue!

CHAMPS CORNER

Wreath Sales Pick Up

A big thank you to all of the families and friends who ordered holiday wreaths to help support the fundraising efforts for our CHS Seniors! Mark your calendars as we will be distributing the wreaths at the grade school (main campus) on the following dates/times: Friday, Dec. 4th: 5-7pm & Saturday, Dec. 5th: 9-11am

Bottle/Can Fundraiser

Dear CHS Parents,

We could use your help for our bottle/can fundraiser in one or all of the following ways:

BAGGING: One day a week you would move cans/bottles from the collection bins located in Springdale that are outside the trailer to the inside. You would then bag what is in the trailer into the blue bags that are used for fundraisers. Several of our parents do this with a family member or friend. As it's gotten darker earlier, we could really use parents who can do this during the day.

DROP OFF: We are in current need of parents who have a pickup or trailer and can do drop offs. Currently a couple parents with cars/suvs are making multiple trips during the week to various drop off centers, as each site only allows ten bags at a time. This is not ideal. The drop centers will let us make arrangements to drop off all our bags pre-scheduled. We are looking for parents who can schedule drop offs each week with all of our sorted bags. If we are able to get multiple parents who can help, we can then rotate weeks.

Do you like to demo, are you handy? There is currently a very large wood "sorting table" with metal legs that takes up a lot of space and is no longer needed. We would like to have it dismantled and hauled off. Maybe the wood could be used to make new lids for our current bins? Not sure about the metal legs.

Please contact CHAMPS Bottle/Can Coordinator, Heather Glasheen, at champsoregon@gmail.com.

Party Planning

Do you like to plan parties? We are looking for creative parents to ideate and plan for honoring and celebrating our 2021 graduating class. We are looking to hold our first meeting in early January. If you are interested in helping, please contact CHAMPS President, Tamie Tlustos-Arnold, at champsoregon@gmail.com.

Dining Fundraisers

We desperately need help to coordinate dining fundraisers for the balance of the school year. One of our parents has done some ground work and identified a handful of local dining establishments that offer fundraising, we just need someone to coordinate dates and communicate this information. If you are able to help coordinate one or more of these events please contact CHAMPS President, Tamie Tlustos-Arnold, at champsoregon@gmail.com.

CHAMPS Parent Meeting

Parents of seniors, please join us for our December parent meeting on Thursday, Dec. 17th, at 6pm. An invite to the Zoom meeting will be sent to all of those parents who are currently on the 2020-21 parent email list. Please contact Tamie at champsoregon@gmail.com to ensure your name is on this communication tool.

CHILD FIND

Public schools will ensure that all students with disabilities who are eligible for kindergarten through 21 years of age, residing within their attendance area, have available to them a free and appropriate public education in the least restrictive environment. The rights of children with disabilities and their parents will be protected in accordance with state and federal laws.

School districts must locate and identify individuals who have disabilities from birth to age 21. If you or someone you know has a child with a disability who may be in need of special education and related services, you can initiate a referral through your local schools. The following is a list of Multnomah County school districts:
