

During Corbett School Districts inservice, the Counselors and Social Workers worked together in developing our philosophy and mission for the Corbett SBMH program. They discussed the priorities of the mental health program and ensured that they aligned with Corbett School District's overall mission and vision. They also talked about planning the Comprehensive School Counseling Program and how they could best achieve their goals this year.